

NEW CONDUCTOR — Eric Hansen has been appointed assistant conductor of the Young People's Symphony Orchestra. Hansen is a graduate of the University of California — Berkeley, and has an extensive musical education. He is assistant conductor of the Golden Gate Park band also, it was said.

Symphony auditions Saturday

ALBANY — The Young People's Symphony Orchestra of Berkeley announces audition applications are now being accepted for the coming concert season. Openings exist in all sections of the orchestra for young musicians aged 13 to 21. The orchestra's opening concert is scheduled for December 2 at the First Congregational Church in Berkeley.

New to YPSO this year in the post of assistant conductor is Eric Hansen, of Kensington. This summer Hansen served as manager of the Mendocino Music Camp in Danville. He received his A.B. in music at the University of California, Berkeley, and his M.M. in instrumental conducting at the University of Michigan.

Hansen's extensive conducting experience includes serving as assistant conductor of the Opera Theater, the University Symphony Orchestra, and the University Philharmonia at the University of Michigan. While in Michigan, he was music director and conductor of the Ann Arbor Civic Theater and assistant conductor of the Jackson Symphony Orchestra.

At UC Berkeley, Hansen was conductor of the University Summer Orchestra and the Composer's Seminar Series and served as concertmaster of the University Symphony under Michael Senturia. He was student director of the Cal Band in 1973 and is assistant conductor of the Golden Gate Park Band in San Francisco.

Duyong Chung of Davis is beginning his second year as conductor of YPSO. Recognized as a conductor of exceptional ability and as a musical inspiration for young people, Chung is a graduate of Manhattan and Eastman Schools of Music and holds a Doctor of Musical Arts degree from Peabody Conservatory of Music.

YPSO auditions will be held on September 22. Audition applications will be available at high school music departments or by writing Hansen, 24 Kerr Avenue, Kensington 94707, or by calling him at 526-3990.

Two busted for booze purchase

ALBANY — Two men were arrested last Friday when one purchased liquor for a minor.

While on patrol, an Albany policeman saw Lee Arty, 34, of the Oxford Hotel in Oakland, pass bottles of whiskey to Vin Poli, 19, 1146 Huntington Ave., Albany. Front of the Mark's Jay Liquor store, corner of Pablo and Washington, officer said.

Check of Arty, after he was taken to the Albany Police Department, revealed he was wanted by Oakland Police Department on an outstanding warrant, the report said. A police report said a check of Arty's automobile had been used in several robberies. Oakland Police Department picked up Arty.

Poli was cited and released, but the liquor was seized.

Attention new voters register!

ALBANY — Jacqueline L. Bucholz, Albany City Clerk, announced yesterday new residents, or those who did not vote in the last general election must register to vote in the forthcoming November 6 Albany election.

In addition to those who did not vote in the last election, Mrs. Bucholz said residents who have moved, even from one apartment to another within the same building; changed their name or have changed the party of their choice, also must register.

Registration for voting can be done at the City Clerk's office in Albany City Hall, 1000 San Pablo Avenue, daily Monday through Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., Mrs. Bucholz said.

Postcard registration is now in effect in Alameda County and if one is unable to register either at her office, or at the Albany Fire Department, which accepts registrations on weekends, a registration form is available through the mails. The form may be obtained by calling the City Clerk's office during business hours. The telephone number is 644-8523.

Police to look at accident

ALBANY — An investigation is continuing into the death of a 34-year-old man who was crossing San Pablo Avenue Sept. 10 when he was struck by a pickup truck driven by an off-duty police officer.

Funeral rites were held Monday for John J. Cruz, a public health clerk at the University of California. Police reports indicate the pickup truck was driven by Willard Leggett, an off-duty Albany policeman who was enroute to a police shooting practice when the accident occurred at 6:54 a.m.

Mr. Cruz was rushed to Herrick Memorial Hospital and placed in the intensive care unit for treatment of head and other injuries. He died three days later. Autopsy results are being awaited by police investigators, according to Police Capt. Melvin Boyd.

Police reports say the accident occurred when Mr. Cruz was walking east across San Pablo Avenue in a crosswalk and the west-bound truck driven by Leggett was turning left from Solano Avenue to go south on San Pablo Avenue.

There are traffic signal lights at all four corners and they were reportedly green for east-west traffic.

Capt. Boyd said the officer was not taken into custody and no charges have been filed pending the results of the police investigation.

Born in Portugal, Mr. Cruz had been a UC employee for 15 years and was a long-time Albany resident. A Mass of Christian Burial was held Monday at St. Ambrose Catholic Church and burial took place at St. Joseph Cemetery, San Pablo.

Richmonder victim of strongarm

ALBANY — A Richmond man was the victim of a strong arm robbery last Thursday night when he was stopped by three juveniles who demanded the portable radio he was carrying, he reported to police.

Washington Garid Cleveland, Jr., 1514 Ohio St., Richmond, said he was accosted while walking down the street by the three juveniles. When he refused to give them his radio, they jumped out of the car they were riding in to take the radio from him forcibly, he said. He ran down the street to elude the three and the process his wallet fell from his pocket. The juveniles, he reported to police, stopped, picked up the wallet and escaped.

Police are investigating the incident.

CCC needs applicants

ALBANY — The California Conservation Corps is seeking applications from men and women, ages 18-23, for one year of public service conservation work. Corps members must be willing to live in a dormitory or camp setting away from home for a year, do strenuous physical labor under adverse weather conditions and follow a strict schedule of work, recreation and education activities.

Council gets into it again on sewers, civil service board beef

City council adjourns in Dows memory

ALBANY — The Albany City Council, in a rare action, adjourned the regular meeting last Tuesday night in memory of Col. Samuel R. Dows, who died Sunday, September 9, at his home of an apparent heart attack.

The Council has adjourned the regular meetings many times with a minute of silence in memory of local or national figure, but the action last Tuesday was a rarity.

Col. Dows, who was retired from the U.S. Army with 30 years of service, was one of the mainstays of civil and community life in Albany. He had been active in the Senior Center for many years and was, at the time of his death, vice-chairman of the Albany Planning and Zoning Commission. He had served as chairman of the same body previously. He had lived in Albany for over 50 years.

Meals now at Senior Center

ALBANY — Those who have been in the Albany Senior Nutrition program have some good news coming.

Meals are to be prepared and served at the Albany Senior Center starting tonight, according to word received. The meals have been prepared and served at Albany High School until September 6 during the time of construction of the newly expanded Center at 850 Masonic Avenue. Now the meals will be prepared in the new kitchen at the Center and served in the large dining room.

Those who are to participate in the program are reminded they must sign up in the reservation book at the Center, and must register in person. There can be no one signing in for another person and no one may assume they have a permanent reservation. Reservations must be claimed no later than 3:40 p.m. for the 4 o'clock meal. Those who have not registered prior to the 3:40 p.m. deadline will be served on a first come, first served basis as long as there are meals.

A suggested donation of 60 cents will be welcomed.

Eaneman named as new PG&E manager

ALBANY — James M. Eaneman of Albany has been named Berkeley area manager of Pacific Gas and Electric Company, announced Gary F. Wood, manager of PG&E's operations in northern Alameda and Contra Costa counties.

Eaneman, who joined PG&E in 1968 as a customer services trainee, will now supervise all PG&E marketing activities in the Berkeley, Albany and Kensington areas.

Eaneman has been a director of the Berkeley Trade Club and the Concerned Berkeley Citizens. He has served as president and treasurer of the Charter Oaks Homeowners Association in Los Gatos, vice president of the Wildwood Homeowners Association in El Cerrito and a member of the El Cerrito Relays organizing committee.

Transportation is needed for disabled people

ALBANY — Two hundred and nineteen developmentally disabled persons have been without transportation to their daily programs as of August 10. The affected individuals are clients of the Regional Center of the East Bay, a state funded private agency, where representatives are hopeful that concerns from the community will spur the Department of Developmental Services in Sacramento to re-evaluate the current costs for specialized transportation services.

Concerned citizens wishing to express their support for these 219 developmentally disabled citizens, should contact David E. Loberg, Ph.D., Director, Department of Developmental Services, 744 "P" Street, Sacramento, California 95814. Phone (916) 920-6701.

3-2 vote dumps sewer charges for ballot

ALBANY — In another marathon session Monday night, the Albany City Council handled a double load of agenda items, ending up with short tempers and some harsh words, but finally agreeing that Col. Sam Dows' should have more than just a plaque on a bench at Overlook Park.

The Planning and Zoning Commission made a suggestion to the Council that a bench be installed at the Park and a suitable inscription be included. Vice-Mayor Lewis M. Howell said he believed a plaque at Albany's Senior Center would be more appropriate and the Council agreed to ask the Planning and Zoning Commission to include Howell's suggestion in their action. It was passed unanimously by the whole Council, just about the only thing the five members did agree upon as a body.

Ransome Co., Emeryville contractors, were awarded the Stannage Avenue repaving job on a low bid of $50,787.50, almost $7,000 less than the bid of Bay Cities Paving and Grading of Richmond. Their bid was $57,031.00 and the highest bid was that of P. & J. Construction of Oakland at $67,264.25. When Councilman Louis George asked why the vast difference, Robert Guletz, Public Works Director, pointed out Ransome is an expert in the street repair business and has the necessary machinery to bring in a lower cost factor.

Petitions ask for curb cuts

ALBANY — Petitions have appeared in some of the stores and shops of Albany asking "curb cuts" be installed at every intersection and that all business establishments become "barrier-free."

The petitions, reversing the famous slogan, "Solano Stroll" to "Stroll Solano," asks the improvements to make the area more accessible to handicapped persons. Citing the number of shops on Solano Avenue that are inaccessible, the petitioners ask for the support of both the merchants and residents in appealing to the Albany City Council to have the "curb cuts" installed.

The cuts are slopes from the sidewalks to the street to enable persons in wheelchairs to go from block to block and across the street without fear of accidentally turning over the wheel chair. Many of the doors in the business houses are too small to allow the passage of wheelchairs, the petition asks the merchants to make their business places easier for those similarly handicapped.

The petitions ask for installation of the curb cuts at all "intersections of Albany, beginning with the most heavily traveled business sections of the city, and progressing throughout the city."

Petitions can be obtained from Rev. C. Lynne White, Doris Bradley or Sandra Cabraser by telephoning 527-8295. The three are the steering committee on the project.

Blue Dolphins annual picnic Saturday

ALBANY — The third annual awards picnic for the Albany Blue Dolphins will be held Saturday at the Albany Pool starting at 11 a.m.

The awards picnic will end a successful season. The Blue Dolphins had a .500 average for the dual meet season.

At the Berkeley Invitational held in late August, the Dolphins placed third out of eight teams. Presented trophies for high-point winners in the eight and under age bracket were Suzanne Dunning and Kwame Adwere-Boamah.

There will be a barbecue following the awards and free swim at the pool. If there are any questions, call Coach Anne Zane at the Albany Pool (526-7386).

League winners

By BILL LEWIS, SR.

ALBANY — The Albany Little League awards ceremonies last Saturday were well attended and eleven awards were made to winners of the drawing following the picnic in Memorial Park.

Awards were given to the Senior and Major League All Star players as well as the team members of the Nevada-Tahoe White Sox, Park and Shop Cubs, Moose Lodge Pirates and the Albany Peace Officers Association Colts.

The White Sox, managed by Chris Caras, won the Minor League championship for the third year in a row and four out of the last five years.

The Pirates, led by Hector Aguilar, won the Major League Championship for the second year in a row. The Pirates were undefeated in 1978, but the Cubs, under the management of Jim Harris, gave them a battle, winning the first half.

The Colts, managed by Bill Lewis won again, duplicating their 1973 season when the team took the championship, again under the tutelage of Lewis.

In the drawings held at the picnic, the following were the winners: Jimmy Howard, Luoma Photo Mats, $5; Lee Harris, Park and Shop Cubs, $5; Marcus Malarkey, Albany Bowl Senators, $5; Richard Pryn, Exchange Club Astros, $5; Lance Caras, Another Termite Co., $5; Noadiah Smith, Call Bros. Orioles, $10; Danny Brooks, Albany Peace Officers Colts, $15; John Oxtot, Casper Hot Dog Giants, $20; Ariel Blason, Berkeley Cycle Braves, $25. The winner of the portable television set donated by Supreme TV was Tito Pimental of the Casper Hot Dog Giants.

Bouquets were given to Ingrid Haney and Shirley Santos who handled the snack booths for the Women's Auxiliary.

cruises to West Sacramento.

Put on by Delta Travel Agency of Sacramento, the trip by motor vessel from San Francisco to Sacramento follows the Bays to the entrance of the Sacramento River opposite Pittsburg. The trip goes up the river to Miner Slough where the steamer enters the Sacramento Deep Water channel to the industrial port in West Sacramento. Buses take passengers from the ship to Old Sacramento for a tour of the original buildings of the State Capitol and then, at the conclusion of the day, riders are taken back to San Francisco's Pier 43½ by air conditioned buses.

The boat leaves at 9 a.m. from San Francisco's Pier 43½ and travels the three bays that make up the area, the San Francisco, San Pablo and Suisun Bays, all within view of the landmarks that are pointed out by Don Derbyshire, tour director for Delta Travel.

Arrival is usually about 4 to 4:30 p.m., giving plenty of time for sightseeing and shopping in the shops of Old Sacramento. There are several well known eating houses in the area and there is time, if one wishes, to visit Sutter's Fort and the State Capitol prior to boarding the bus for the ride home.

The fare for the excursion, with everything paid except food and beverages, is a modest $25 and reservations may be made by calling Delta Travel at 916/371-6711 or by writing the Agency at 1240 Merkle Avenue, Suite 103, West Sacramento, Calif., 95691.

HOMETOWN NEWS

The 33rd reunion of Oakland's Washington Grammar School has been set for October 6 with a luncheon at the Elegant Farmer.

The reunion is open to all members of classes from 1904 to 1942 and is in honor of Charles E. Hudspeth, principal of the Oakland grammar school. The tradition, set up by Hudspeth in 1927, has been an annual affair since that date and a group from the 1909's attended the last reunion.

More information on the event may be obtained from Elsie (Schlichting) Madsen, 527-2904, or Edna (Miller) Ahart, 653-5842.

A free class has started at the Berkeley Senior Center where the KQED TV Shakespeare productions are reviewed prior to screening and criticized following the TV show.

The classes, to be held weekly, start next Wednesday and are under the tutelage of Professor John Galt in the North Berkeley Senior Center, Hearst and Grove streets, Berkeley.

Bruce H. Feingold, of Albany, has been awarded a Doctor of Philosophy degree by the Berkeley campus of the California School of Professional Psychology. The School has campuses in Berkeley, Fresno, Los Angeles and San Diego.

Dr. Feingold's dissertation was on "On Wilderness Experience-The Value of Natural Environment."

Yvonne Tallierico, daughter of long time Albany residents, Sue Vare and the late Capt. O.F. Vare, has recently completed a study unit integrating music and social studies of Africa.

At present, Tallierico works part time as a music consultant for the Mt. Diablo School District and as a free lance music consultant.

We have the first answer to that picture we published several weeks ago of the Albany Improvement Club gathering of Albany residents.

The child in the arms of Matt Stanley has been identified as his daughter, Mrs. Leona Stanley Blah of El Cerrito. Her father built their one room home in 1910 and added rooms as the family grew. According to our informant, the picture was taken in 1914 and Leona left Albany in 1937 when she got married. She has expressed interest in seeing more of the pictures from the Albany Historical Society's collection.

The El Cerrito-Albany Chapter, Order of Daughters of the Empire, is to install new officers Saturday at the El Cerrito Masonic Temple, 6922 Stockton Street, El Cerrito, at 8 p.m.

Refreshments and dancing will follow the installation. Steven C. Peckham is Master Councilor and John Martens is the retiring Master Councilor.

The Albany High School Class of June 1940 is to hold a dinner dance October 6 at the Holiday Inn in Concord.

All members of the class are asked to get in touch with Joyce Cirmelli, 682-1220, for reservations and further information.

BERKELEY CITY CLUB

The club will stage a bus tour, under the sponsorship of the Lehuannan of the Hawaiian section, tomorrow, to the newly opened Sonoma Historical Museum. The tour is limited to 50 people and will leave the City Club at 8:15 a.m.

Following the tour of the Museum, the bus will go to the Depot Hotel 1870 for luncheon. The 1870 building housing the Depot Hotel is believed to have been a part of the winery of General

Vallejo.

The tour is under the direction of Mrs. Theodore Fourres, aided by Mrs. Fred Bradley, Mrs. John Sardis is Hawaiian Section chairman, and Special Events Chairman is Mrs. Arthur Jensen. Mrs. Jensen and Mrs. Fourres will be the hostesses for the tour.

Friday night is Bingo Night at the Berkeley City Club and prizes will include a free Family Night dinner and luncheon.

The dinner Friday night will feature slides of the three Scandinavian capitol and of the North Cape as presented by Mr. and Mrs. George Bimmore. The program will start at 7:30 p.m.

Next Wednesday, September 25, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., Mrs. Gertrude Kuhner will present the first in a series of folk dance evenings.

GRAY PANTHERS

The Gray Panthers of Berkeley are to meet next Wednesday at 7 p.m., at the North Berkeley Senior Center, Hearst and Grove streets, Berkeley.

The general membership meetings are open to the public, free of charge and wheelchair accessible.

KENSINGTON SENIOR CENTER

Tomorrow the Kensington Senior Center will present a "Look at the Modern World," a new monthly class to be taught by Leo Vuosala, a political science professor at Vista College.

In addition to the new class, the Center is open for crafts, games and conversation. Luncheon is served and group singing and bridge for both intermediate and advanced players follow in the afternoon.

NORTHBRAE WOMEN'S CLUB

Mrs. John Pastorino will preside at the meeting today, with the festivities to start at 10:30 a.m., with the announced "Sample Day."

The Drama and Arts section is to meet at 10:30 and will hear Mrs. Arch Sparrow do her "Adventures in Color." The Armchair travel section will visit, via short films, Holland with Mrs. Ludwig Fleigner chairing the event. Mrs. Richard Dawson will present her film on three cities of Holland. Mrs. Merlin Drucquer, bridge, and Mrs. William Edlund, canasta, will hold their sessions at 11:30 a.m.

The afternoon session will present the World Affairs section with Mrs. John Senger and she will introduce Bob Summers, public affairs area manager for Chevron, U.S.A., who will outline the "Great Oil and Gas Shortage" for the members.

Guest Day and Tea will be on tap next Wednesday, it was announced.

Valente opens 770 high series

By PHIL ALSTON

games of 234-278-188 for 700 even.

Southpaw Mark Valente opened his season in the 875 Commercial League at Albany Bowl by following his introductory blast of 275 with counts of 259 and 275 for 770 series as his D & M Body Shop team defeated Blair Excavators 15½ to 9½.

In the same league Phil Niemi led Real Estate Place 16-9 over Mary & Joe's with 268 game and 634.

Valente was not the only one to break the 700 barrier. Ron Selak boosted his Selatics Five team into first place in the 910 Majors standings with a 14-11 edge over One's Enough on Al's Big Burgers 21 to 1 for a firm hold on first place.

In the Friday Invitational League, Steve Brombacher, who hadn't bowled in ten years, showed the effects of his layoff in a 124 first game, but found his touch of former years in the next two. He hit seven strikes in a row at the start of his third game for a 277 beauty that ran his series to 582. John Wolhar took league series honors with 597.

Tom Cepernich, bowling in the Graphic Arts circuit, found warm weather to his liking and blasted games of 257-244-182 for 683. Paul Bennett followed much the same pattern in a lower key in the 660 Scratch, which he led with 218-230-182 for 630.

The Nevada-Tahoe Tours League got 217-582 from Jim Orlemann and a rare 168 triplicate from George Nelson, while Russ Stanley was pacing Berkeley Elks with 218-590.

In the Tri City Men's circuit Dennis Reed shot 236-635 to push his Mary & Joe's team 2-1 past Blue & Gold Market. Ken Umberger's 235 middle game led to a 591 series in Plaza Mixers, and Carl Hendrix topped Woodstockers with 581.

Other league leaders included Dave Padilla with 543 for Tuesday Invitational, Rufus Robbins 567 in the Morrison Memorial, Tom Hampton 545 for Albany Eagles, Lewis Love 550 in Bear Fives, Lyn Adams 547 for Hawaiians and Dom Ponsetti 535 in Brass Rail.

Albany knocks out Swett

By JON ROCHMIS

CROCKETT — Rich Nemanick has quite a few worries as he prepares his John Swett gridders for visiting Churchill (Nev.) next week.

On the other hand, Albany coach Dave Frey wouldn't seem as if he had anything to worry about at all, on the basis of his team's 33-0 whitewashing of the Indians Friday night. But he does: Salesian.

The third-ranked Chieftains host the eighth-ranked Cougars Saturday at 1 p.m. "Boy," that will be a struggle," he said. "A real defensive struggle."

How could Frey say that after the powerful Cougars rolled up 298 yards, including 184 on the ground? "We still made a lot of mistakes, despite what the score said," he warned. "Fortunately, we made things happen with our defense."

"But I don't want to savor this win too long," he added. "We've got to start thinking about forward progression, much less scoring. The hosts netted minus-5 yards on the ground and plus-57 total yardage in an unimpressive season debut."

"We had poor line charge and missed assignments," Nemanick, a first-year coach, said. "We're still learning a new system, and I think part of the reason Albany dominated us is because they're a week ahead of us. They're also a very good team."

Quarterback Darryl Lyons, who directed the option reasonably well for a first game, didn't know quite how good the Cougars were until well into the game.

"Everybody expected us to come out and win everything," Lyons said. "But in our scrimmages, we didn't look too good. I wasn't into it that much either, but I talked things over with the coach and we all seem to be coming around now."

"As for me, I'm really into the game now," Lyons said. That was evident early in the first quarter, when Lyons directed the Cougars to a touchdown on their second possession. With a first-and-10 on Swett's 39, Lyons pitched high to Anthony Freeman, who grabbed the ball with one hand and sprinted into the endzone.

Freeman also scored the second TD of the game, on a one-yard run.

Freeman, who rushed nine times for 73 yards, said he had an easy time on defense, where he plays linebacker. "Usually, me and Max (Hoyle) have to cover everything, and we have to work really hard," he said.

"But the other guys around us were hitting so hard, I didn't have that much to do. And on the offensive line, Ken (Rogers) and Mark Gutierrez are the best in the ACAL. The left side is going to get a lot of yardage this year."

Dave Gaskins, who intercepted two John Fabrizi passes in the second half to help preserve the shutout, said he expects many more whitewashes this year. "Our defense is the best," he said. "You could see that tonight. They didn't get anything on us."

And that concerns Nemanick, whose team unfortunately seemed to retreat more than advance. In addition, there was much confusion. At least three times, the Indians were penalized for taking too much time in the huddle, and other times players didn't seem to know their positions.

"We were disorganized in several areas," the coach admitted. "On the special teams, a few guys forgot that they were supposed to be out there."

PUBLIC NOTICE

ORDINANCE NO. 79-06

AN ORDINANCE OF THE ALBANY CITY COUNCIL, AMENDING ORDINANCE #158 AND ESTABLISHING RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR KEEPING GOATS WITHIN THE CITY LIMITS OF ALBANY.

THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF ALBANY DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1

Section 4.57: Section 6 or Ordinance No. 162 of the City of Albany as heretofore amended is hereby changed and amended so that Section 6 of said Ordinance will hereafter read as follows:

Section 6: It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation, or association to keep or permit to be kept any bull, steer, sheep, pig, male goat over five (5) months old, or swine upon any premises within the City of Albany.

Section 4.58: It is unlawful for any person, firm, corporation, or association to keep or permit to be kept more than two (2) female goats over five (5) months old within the City limits without a permit issued to the owner or person(s) in charge thereof by the Animal Control Officer.

Section 4.59: No goats, male or female, shall be kept in the commercially zoned districts of the City of Albany.

Section 4.60: Application for a permit to keep or raise female goats shall comply with standards described below in Section 4.61. No permit shall be issued unless the owner or person(s) in charge of said goats have obtained written permission from the property owner immediately adjacent to the proposed permanent enclosure area indicating their consent to the keeping of goats. Furthermore, the applicant for permit shall agree in writing to hold the City harmless from all liability and costs in the event of any damage, injury, or accident caused by said goats, either intentional or negligent.

Section 4.61: (a) The female goats must be kept in an adequately fenced corral. The fence shall be a minimum of six (6) feet in height and shall conform to the City's zoning ordinances. The shelter for the goats shall have an enclosed area of no less than twenty-five (25) square feet per goat and shall have a roof which is impermeable to rain and siding such that allows cross ventilation and sufficient weather protection. The outdoor fenced area shall be a minimum of one hundred fifty (150) square feet per goat and an additional one hundred (100) square feet for a second goat.

(b) All feed shall be stored in containers which offer protection against rodents in a manner approved by the Building Department. A description of the feed storage shall be provided with the application.

(c) All structures and enclosures/corrals and premises wherein female goats are kept or housed shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition; free of all obnoxious smells and substances, and in compliance with all regulations promulgated by the Alameda County Health Department and with all laws of the State of California and applicable provisions of the Code and other ordinances of the City.

(d) All droppings and food scraps shall be removed from the premises at least three (3) times per week and disposed of in a manner satisfactory to the Building Inspector. The application shall include a description of the manner for disposing of animal waste.

(e) The City and any of its officers or agencies shall have the right to inspect such structures or enclosures and premises at any time.

(f) When any goat is kept in such condition as to violate the California Health and Safety Code, such goat shall be subject to impoundment by the Poundmaster.

(g) It shall be unlawful to tether a goat. Goats shall be kept in a fenced area.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Section 4.62: The City Council shall by resolution set the application fee for the permit to keep female goats.

Section 4.63: If female goats are kept on property that the owner of the goats does not own, written consent from the property owner must be obtained and must be on file in the City Clerk's office.

Section 4.64: No female goat shall be corralled closer than twenty (20) feet from the nearest dwelling unit, a dwelling house owned, leased or occupied by the person owning the female goats. Adjacent property owners may by written consent agree to allow the goats to be kept a distance of ten (10) feet from their dwelling unit.

Section 4.65: The City Council may revoke any permit issued under this article where, in their judgment, there has been a failure to comply with the conditions of the permit or any violation of this article or law or regulation of the State of California. Three (3) days notice will be given in writing to correct the violation.

Section 4.66: If female goats escape from their enclosure/corral and are determined to be a nuisance by the Animal Control Officer, the goat will be impounded or removed from the City limits.

Section 4.67: Incessant noise is a public nuisance and the goat shall be subject to impoundment by the Animal Control Officer.

Section 4.68: It shall be unlawful for any person owning any goat or having the same in his or her possession or under his or her control to allow or permit the same to run at large in the City. When moving goats, they must be kept on a leash of not longer than ten (10) feet at all times.

Section 4.69: Goats shall be permitted on a temporary basis of up to two (2) weeks on a permit for the purpose of weed abatement. The written consent of the owner of the premises on which the goats are kept of this Article shall be in force, except that the distance requirement may be waived by written consent of all affected neighbors adjoining such premises.

Section 4.70: Any person aggrieved by the issuance or non-issuance or revocation of a permit to keep goats may file a written appeal to the City Council. Such written appeal shall be filed with the City Clerk within one hundred (100) days after the notice of issuance or non-issuance of permit. Such appeal notice shall be placed on the next succeeding Council meeting agenda; and Council shall set a public hearing on such appeal to be heard within three (3) weeks of such meeting. A notice of such public hearing on the appeal shall be published and individual notices shall be sent to all property owners within one hundred (100) feet of the location.

SECTION 2: This Ordinance shall be published once in the Albany Times, a newspaper of general circulation within the City of Albany, which said newspaper is designated for that purpose, and shall become effective on and after its final passage, adoption and publication.

Dear Friends — We are back from our European vacation and we had a wonderful time. Here is a kaleidoscope of impressions: London shows are great, forget the show tours, get your own tickets or pay a bit more and have your hotel bellman order them for you (he writes them out on the spot). Walk a lot. We sometimes walked seven hours, then I'd take a big hot bubble bath, take a nap — then we'd go out to dinner and walk some more. The big cities have picked up our worst attributes — lounging teenagers and loud rock music — alleys and sidewalks piled with plastic refuse bags. We loved Amsterdam — loved our location near the huge Neukirk — its chimneys pealed on the half hour night and day. The Anne Frank House — the trip around the canals and seeing the "Pussy Barges" where cats are kept in barges in the canal while owners are on vacation. We loved the cleanliness and sparkling windows of the Netherlands, loved watching Delft made and buying a tiny tea pot and sugar and creamer set — we loved watching them make or fashion diamond rings, wooden shoes and cheese. The trip to Rotterdam to pick up the Austria for our four day cruise down the Rhine was fascinating. The cruise was a perfect respite between Amsterdam and

Paris. We enjoyed the magnificent meals, our cabin with fresh linen comforters and huge picture windows. We enjoyed the cosmopolitan mix of people — a group of Venezuelans on a pilgrimage to see the Pope, phalanxes of German windows, our own delightful fellow Americans. Cologne and Heidelberg were fascinating cities. We had a dinner at a beergarten and saw Heidelberg Castle at sunset. Our tour guide was eighty-four and delightful. For each city we had the most perfect guides. Our impression of Travellers was that it is still the best company to handle your European trip. The train trip from Strasbourg to Paris was like being in a movie — we bought sandwiches at the station, watched the gorgeous green farmland fly by. We gradually got to know our fellow Americans on the trip and I have a new plan for photos — I look around for someone who looks like they have the same taste as me and ask them if I can pay for a set of pictures developed after they get home. We didn't even take a camera with us. As we get older we appreciate the comfort of good hotels and bathrooms. We like travelling with no surprises. We did a lot of hotel inspecting and question-asking. It is true that it is expensive — the going out to dinner in San Francisco every night. Coming home, San Francisco seemed the most beautiful city of all. We love talking to you, very best for this week. Sylvia Terhune, Carole Hewitt, Pat Gilliam, THE AVENUE TRAVEL, INC., 1650A Solano Avenue, Albany 428-1886

ALBANY SENIOR CENTER NEWS

By JEAN KRAMER

Mini-editorial

Senate Bill 774, introduced in the State Assembly by Senator Campbell, would deny licensed pharmacists the right to give a complete oral examination on the use of any medication dispensed by them. It seems to us that the older people would benefit from such a policy. It is difficult to understand why Senator Campbell is opposed to it. We know of many cases where elderly people have neglected to take their medicine, or taken it incorrectly because they did not properly understand the orally printed instructions on the container and most doctors are too busy to take the time to be certain that the patient clearly understands the directions, what is going on with a qualified pharmacist performing this function? After all, if pharmacists are qualified to make up the medicine, they are qualified to explain its use and there should be no fear or hesitation to ask them to do so. It looks like SB 774 will become law. It is too bad as it would deprive older folks of a service that could have been helpful to them.

The death of Col. Sam Dows left us deeply saddened. We shall miss him very much. He played an important role at our center, serving as Treasurer of our club and a member of the executive board. He gave freely of his knowledge and expertise, solving hundreds of seniors' taxation problems, offering training and many other important services. Last week's column, a column crept in and the tax man Sam obtained for our members was $22,000, not $22 as printed. He won the respect and admiration of all who had the privilege of knowing and working with him. Our sympathy and condolences go to his wife, his family and his friends.

ATTENTION SENIORS! Don't forget the birthday party for our musical conductor, Florence Mostert, which she is sponsoring for benefit. The party is on Friday, September 30 at 2 p.m. Come and have fun. Call 644-8500 for reservations. Our Folk dancing class started with a bang. 30 people attended and ended the instruction provided by Gertrude Kuhner. The class is held every Friday afternoon from 2 to 4 p.m. Come and join. There is no charge.

Blood screening will be on Monday, September 24th, from 3:30 to 5:30 at AllState Savings. Whether you have hearing problems or not, whether you wear a hearing aid or not, here is something of interest to you. A Bell-Tone representative will be at the center on Friday, September 21 at 1:30 to give a talk, show a film and service hearing aids free of charge. Be sure to attend.

Note: The nutrition site is now located at our center 846 Masonic, Albany. Meals are served every day at 4 p.m., Monday thru Friday. Reservations for meals will be taken starting September 19.

Due to the sudden death of Col. Dows, the Driver training class has been postponed. It will be resumed when a substitute teacher becomes available. Watch this column for further information.

Wednesday, September 19: "A Look at the Modern World," class, 10 a.m. Leo Vuosalo, instructor. 4 p.m. Menu, Chicken-a-la-King. Don't forget, reservations are necessary.

Thursday, September 20: Bingo, 10:30 a.m. Mini Market 12 noon. Short talk by representative of Ministry of Elderly at 12:30. Cards and conversation all afternoon. 4 p.m. menu-Spaghetti/meat sauce.

Friday, September 21: Bridge class 10 a.m. Hearing talk and film as well as hearing-aid service, at 1:30 p.m. Bridge playing all afternoon. 4 p.m. menu-Baked Fish.

Saturday, September 22: Silver Toppers Bingo at 10:30 a.m. Bring a bag lunch. Cards in the afternoon. Folk dance class from 2 to 4 p.m. Evening ballroom dance with Myriam Heath at 8 p.m., Marin School, Marin and Santa Fe. New World Affairs class by Leo Vuosalo, 10 to 12 a.m.

Sunday, September 23: Trip to North Shore and Reno, leaves the center at 8 a.m. Cards and conversation, noon to 4 p.m.

Monday, September 24: Creative Writing Class 9 a.m. Marcie Alan Craig, instructor. Blood Pressure screening at AllState Savings, 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. Guided tours thru center by our dedicated volunteers. Come and get acquainted. 4 p.m. menu- Braised Beef Tips in Brown Sauce.

Tuesday, September 25: Art Needlework class 10 a.m. Origami, Japanese Folding paper class also at 10 a.m. Come and meet our new Japanese instructor, Emiko Larson, she will show you how to create beautiful birds, flowers and other decorative objects just by folding colored papers. TRY IT, YOU'LL LIKE IT! Sing-a-long with musical conductor, Florence Mostert at 1:30 p.m. 4 p.m. menu-Fried Chicken.

EDITOR:
Dear Sir:
There is a reply to that letter of Jennifer's in which she was told they kill raccoons.

OK, Jennifer, let's see if we can straighten out just what happens to the animals that are caught in Albany.

We "hear say" from the neighbors or something a friend told you. Here from the guy who catches and helps in the care of our wild friends: Remember, we are the ones that encroach on them. They want food, water and place to hide from us. We are moving them back to our house building in Berkeley Hills.

You mentioned a mother raccoon and her young were caught running and the sewers. I believe it is impossible — where would I place the trap, in the gutter? You write the animals were taken to the pound. NOT SO.

In the past 16 years as the Animal Control Officer, I have taken two raccoons to the Animal Shelter. It was covered with rats. I put it to sleep. The rat was very sick, it also put to sleep. All other raccoons were released. We have released raccoons as far away as California.

When a mother raccoon and her young are caught, it is usually in someone's yard. If I catch the family, the young are still nursing. They are taken to the Alexander Lindsey farm in Walnut Creek as far as possible. The family raccoons is put in a cage. They permit mother raccoon to raise her family, then release them in a wild area. If the mother cannot be caught or abandons her young, the people at the Museum raise the young with bottles, then later teach the young to fend for themselves. This means looking under rocks, etc., for their food, while still caged.

I heartily recommend the people of Albany go out and check "Alexanders." Really a fantastic place to take children as well.

Now, Jennifer, what happens to the opossums, snakes and any of the other wiggly things we catch. All are released in some other area. At the same time, we have to be realistic. Skunks are disposed of. We cannot relocate them. This is a sad point in any Animal Control Officer's job.

The City of Albany does not have an Animal Control Shelter. We have an agreement or contract with the Berkeley Humane Society. I am the A.C.O. for the City. The Society houses, feeds and gives care and a lot of understanding to our animals. Mostly dogs and cats, but does include rabbits, chickens, ducks, etc.

Jennifer, what do you think happens to the baby birds people find on their lawns? The injured bird, the one the cat almost ate? The baby pigeon that fell from the girder near the freeway, etc.? Are they just put to sleep? Not worth any effort? NO! The Berkeley Humane Society sponsors a man and wife who take care of all of Albany's injured birds. This couple lives on Walnut Street in Berkeley.

What a nice feeling to tell an eight year old that the injured bird she holds in her hand will get the best of care and given a second chance.

Albany has three very capable veterinarians whom I have known for years. Very fine gentlemen. Berkeley Humane also has capable veterinarians and aides. Many of you, when the time comes, have your local veterinarians put your dogs to sleep. Many of you ask me to intercede at this time. A very sad time. As you know, I take your dog to the Berkeley Humane. I also explain that it will be done very gently. I will remain right there with your pet, holding it, talking to it. For 16 years the dogs I have handled were put to sleep in this manner, with an injection by needle. NOT in a chamber and this was years before the said chamber was banned by the State of California. The aides who work with me are not callous to this work; it is done with feeling, and I would have it no other way.

I wish to say that the aides with whom I have come in contact with at the Berkeley Humane have been fine, dedicated animal lovers and have helped me with problems of Albany dogs beyond anything said in a contract. The working of the contract and the great relationship we have had with them throughout the years is really another story.

So, Jennifer, let me close with a couple of reminders to dog owners:

1. Clean up your yards. A possible citation or the D.A.'s office sees you.
 2. Walk your dog, have respect, don't let it defecate on someone's lawn.
 3. Barking in yard at night. A REAL NO NO. Keep the dog in the house.
 4. License your dog. Don't give me extra worry when you lose "our" dog.
- Enjoy your animals, but give your next door neighbor and neighborhood a big break.

Dear Sir:

Is there a shortage of affordable housing for students in Berkeley? Yes.
Does the Berkeley City Council's decision to take the time to consider other proposals for the School for the Deaf and Blind site have anything to do with the shortage? No.

There has been a shortage of student housing for the past several years. If there is a student housing "crisis" now, it is primarily because of actions taken and not taken by U.C. Two come to mind: 1. The admission of 1,000 students over and above the maximum enrollment set for the Berkeley campus; 2. The failure to build student housing on property bought by U.C. for that specific purpose 15-20 years ago.

Rather than blame the Berkeley City Council for the results of U.C.'s bad planning, loyal supporters would do better to urge U.C. to take responsibility for problems of its own making.

Sincerely,
KATHY DeVRIES
Berkeley

Editor:
Dear Sir:

Recently a patient brought me a clipping from a local newspaper entitled "Plastic Lens Implants are Suspect." This patient was scheduled for cataract surgery with a lens implantation and was disturbed because the article implied that intra-ocular lenses are dangerous and have a complication rate of 12 to 15%. The final paragraph of the article states "Because of the frequency and gravity of the complications related to implantation of intra-ocular lenses, we support the decision of the federal Food and Drug Administration to designate intra-ocular lenses as investigational devices."

As an Ophthalmologist with extensive experience in intra-ocular lens implantation, I object to this article. The facts presented in it are inaccurate and misleading. The subject is of extreme importance and should be clarified.

The use of intra-ocular lens implantation in cataract surgery has been a remarkable advance in ophthalmology. We are now able to visually rehabilitate patients and offer them a quality of vision that has been unobtainable with cataract glasses.

To date over 170,000 patients in the United States alone have received intra-ocular lenses and there is clinical data available from Europe dating to 1950.

No technique is perfect and every surgical procedure is subject to complications. The problem in evaluating the incidence of unward complications in intra-ocular lens implantation is that appropriate statistical data has not been obtained.

Currently a study is underway that will supply this information. The Department of Health, Education and Welfare has organized the largest clinical study in recent history in order to determine the effectiveness as well as the failure rate in intra-ocular lenses are designated as an investigational device. This terminology is used because intra-ocular lenses are involved in a clinical investigation. There is no implied connotation of danger.

The first meeting to review the results of the study was held on January 9, 1979. At this time, the data for approximately 70,000 lens implantations and 1,500 control cataract operations performed from February 1978 through November 1978 were reviewed. The incidence of adverse reactions in the 1,500 control cataract extractions was 0.53%. The incidence in the 70,000 eyes with lens implantation was 2.01% not 12 to 15% as alluded to in the recent article. Furthermore, 1.4% of the complications in the implant group were problems requiring secondary surgical intervention. Most of these cases did well after the subsequent surgical procedure.

When complete information is available, the ultimate issue will be whether the risks of adverse reactions are greater than the anticipated benefits of intra-ocular lens implantation. That decision should be made by the individual patient and his physician. During the period when we are gathering information it is essential that the public be fully informed of all advantages as well as disadvantages of the procedure; however, it would be unfortunate if incomplete or inaccurate publicity by the media such as was presented in the article entitled "Plastic Lens Implants are Suspect" distorts the facts and unnecessarily frightens the public.

Sincerely,
SANFORD L. SEVERIN, M.D.

EDITOR:
Dear Sir:
Since Councilmember

Howell abruptly proposed that Section 4a of the Albany Charter be submitted to the voters in November, the Albany Times has written several articles which were generally sympathetic to Mr. Howell and his proposal. My analysis of the proposed change leads me to conclude that Mr. Howell and the Albany Times are incorrect when they maintain that the proposed change would allow Councilmembers George and Lewis to run for yet another term in 1982. The Times and Councilmember Howell have also stated that the proposed change would permit a councilmember who is appointed for a term of less than two years to run for two four-year terms. This statement, while true, omits to mention that the present section provides an appointed person with the same opportunity. Finally, the Times and Councilmember Howell attempt to justify this proposal by saying I originally suggested it, the implication being that I should not now object.

My position is simple and clear. First, respect for our Charter demands that any proposed change be thoroughly discussed by the Charter Review Committee and the City Council with appropriate input from the City Attorney and the public. Second, Mr. Howell's decision to orchestrate the placement of his proposed change at the end of a Council agenda under the "Good of the City" section indicates his disregard for open and fully informed representative government. Third, Mr. Howell's belief as to the impact of this proposal is incorrect, a situation which ironically illustrates the need for the defeat of this section to allow more thorough review of the proposal.

I feel that our City government should exemplify the principles of integrity and openness in government. Decisions should reflect thoughtful policy. Unfortunately, the voters are being asked to vote on an unrefined measure which does nothing to improve our City Charter.

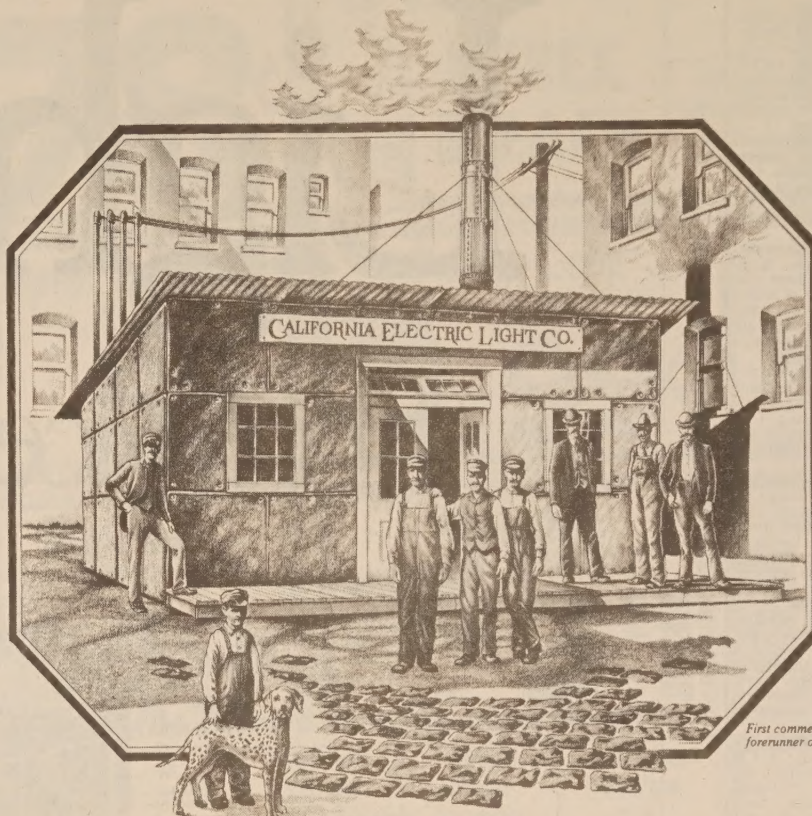

Very truly yours,
ROBERT J. ZWEBEN
City Attorney

First commercial powerhouse, 1879, forerunner of PG&E.

Before Edison introduced his light bulb, we were operating a power plant.

The first commercial powerhouse in America was opened at Fourth and Market streets in San Francisco in 1879, even before Edison introduced his incandescent lamp. That tiny building, providing service for a few arc-light customers, was a forerunner of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company. It served notice to the world that the Age of Electricity had begun.

The idea spread with a rapidity that few of man's previous innovations could match. Electricity powered industries, irrigated farms, provided heat, light, transportation and communications.

From the time of that first ancestral plant, PG&E and its forebears have been pioneers. We have never been committed to any single source of energy to produce electricity.

For example, that first power plant used coal as an energy source.

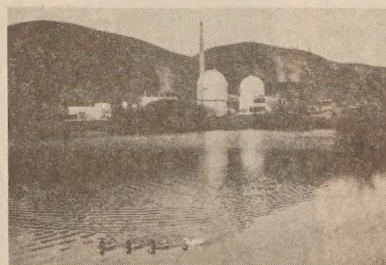

In the first half of the century PG&E used the Sierra's abundant water power to generate much of its electricity, and the PG&E system today is one of the world's great hydroelectric systems.

When California's own resources of oil and natural gas were developed, PG&E was quick to use them as fuels to produce electricity.

In the 1920's we began studying the use of natural underground steam to produce electricity. PG&E now

PG&E is promoting solar energy for heating and is researching practical ways to generate electricity with it.

From the people at

operates the nation's only, and the world's largest, geothermal generating station at The Geysers.

Since before World War II PG&E has been using industrial waste fuels and by-products to produce electricity in cooperative ventures known as co-generation.

As soon as the U.S. government encouraged private development of atomic energy, PG&E in the 1950's built and began successful operation of the world's first privately financed nuclear power plant, at Vallecitos, under Atomic Energy Commission License #1.

With the nation seeking to reduce its dependence on imported oil, PG&E is now seeking approval to build a coal-fired generating station, using the most advanced technology to meet environmental goals.

For the future, PG&E plans to continue pioneering. For example, we have a 2½ megawatt wind generator in our resource program for 1982 operation.

Conservation is still another way to provide electricity for the future, because electricity saved from one use can serve another. For this reason, as well as to help our customers save on energy costs, PG&E is actively promoting conservation.

In all ways we can, we are working to keep your energy future bright.

LET'S GO Fishing!

By CAPT. DAVE KINLEY

Salmon fishing continues to steal the show for local anglers. Large ones, from 20 to 55 pounds, are being landed daily. The fish are all over, from Pacifica, Muir Beach, Pocky Point, Duxbury and on in the Bay from Angel Island almost up to San Quentin. They are hitting a variety of lures and bait. You name it and there is fish being caught on it.

This action should continue until the end of the season, which is a month earlier this season. October 14 is the last day for ocean salmon fishing, so get with it.

Striped bass are making a good showing at Pacifica and near Russell Rock. Surf casting has been sporadic, but they have been getting big fish. Live bait bass fishing has been spotty with some of the party boats filling in with halibut and rockfish.

Local perch fishing is fair, but mostly small ones and a few flounders. This fishing should pick up in about a month.

I guess nearly everyone has heard of the tagged fish at Clear Lake. There are catfish and black bass with a $100 reward tag on some. Maybe you'll be the lucky one to catch one of those $100 fish!

and there have not been 40 applications as yet. He said, at this date, only 26 units have been converted and that all the families in the units had been satisfied with the procedures to date.

Biggs said there is a real need for low income apartments and condominiums in both Albany and El Cerrito and there is a desperate need for low income housing. The motion of Councilman George to adopt the new ordinance was seconded by Jackson and passed unanimously.

The appeal of Gerald Langkammerer and Javad Farrikhtola from the decision of the Planning and Zoning Commission was heard and the two were granted their appeal on Use Permit No. 529, allowing him to build nine units on 14 lots south of 953 Hillside Avenue, after they had agreed to the revisions asked by the Council two weeks ago.

The developer agreed to a three foot set-back for the garages facing the street and an increase in the turn-around area for the other garages of 34 feet, allowing the largest car to turn around prior to entering the street. The Building Department was urged to monitor the work closely to guarantee all conditions of the permit are carried out.

The communication from Dario Meniketti on the issue of the Klu Klux Klan was ordered filed on a 3-2 vote with Jackson and Lewis dissenting. Meniketti had sent a letter to the Hayward City Council lauding them for their stand against the KKK and disowning responsibility for the action of the Albany Council.

Things broke out again when Tom McQuaid, a member of the Civil Service Board asked the Council to define the duties of the Board's secretary, Margaret Giddings.

It was pointed out by McQuaid that two vouchers for payment of Mrs. Giddings and her assistant for acting as proctors for a recent Civil Service test had been held up because Mrs. Giddings is a part-time employee of the Board and is paid $4.50 per hour to act in her official capacity. McQuaid said the going rate for proctors since last June had been $7.65 per hour and he wanted to know why Mrs. Giddings' voucher had been held up. He said he had been told by Roy Paul Endersby, Finance Officer for the City, that the fee would be paid, but that it had been told by a clerk, "Mr. Haden said that if the card (the proctor pay) came through, don't pay it." Mrs. Giddings was not paid on the basis of this report, McQuaid said.

Haden asked "Did you instruct the girl not to pay at the $7.65 rate?" to which Haden replied he was on vacation and "so I didn't know about this." At this point McQuaid suggested a personnel session with the City Council between Haden, Endersby and the unnamed girl who is to have said that Haden was responsible for holding up the payment of the proctor voucher for Mrs. Giddings for $7.65 an hour. He also said the Board had hired an outside secretary that would not be tied into the City offices in any way.

"We wanted a part-time secretary outside of City Hall," McQuaid said.

At this juncture Councilwoman Jackson blew up and told McQuaid he had no "right to act as an interrogator. You can't question staff. I have questions too!"

This was after Haden said the Board was over-spending and was, in his estimate, some $800 in arrears of their budgeted amount. McQuaid asked him how he arrived at the figure and was told "we are going to end up $800 short in the budget." McQuaid pointed out there have been extra tests and that has consumed extra hours for Mrs. Giddings and she will get back to normal as soon as the tests are completed for the promotional examinations in both the police and fire departments.

City Attorney Robert Zweben suggested the Council pay Mrs. Giddings what she has coming, then adopt a resolution setting out what her duties are and at what rate of pay. His suggestion fell on deaf ears as Councilwoman Jackson took off on the City's "qualified finance officer. I don't know what is going on, but for burial in St. Mary's it seems to me you (meaning McQuaid) are the prime mover of deceit. You don't have the authority to present a resolution. You are off base, Tom McQuaid. We are very concerned we are going to be put in the position of a full time position."

Haden asked the Council to set a policy on the proctor pay and the motion brought out the comment from Councilwoman Jackson, "she can drag out her hours any way she wants. There is no supervision."

It finally was agreed to pay her the proctor's fee after Howell had stated "if we don't pay her, she should go to the Labor Commissioner." The rest of the question as to her duties is to be outlined by the Council at a later date when the policy will be settled.

In other more mundane matters, the Council agreed to accept the recommendations of Haden on the proposed Solid Waste Management plan where Albany would control the collection, set rates and collect the money from the local area and let the dumpsite collect its fees for usage on the regional basis. Howell stated all senior citizens are eligible for the lower rates and that the lower rate for garbage, etc., will be maintained at the present level.

Will remove the trees that have broken the sidewalks at the Albany Alta Bates Hospital and will replant the trees. The work is to be directed by the Park Department on the motion of Councilman George, seconded by Councilman Lewis.

Passed the transfer of $150,000 from the Bond and Trust Fund to the General Fund to meet expenses for salary funds during the fiscal year.

Agreed to cancel the September 24 Council meeting as all members of the Council are to attend the League of California Cities Conference on that date.

Accepted the resignation of Michael Goldman from the Mental Health Advisory Board and instructed Haden to interview the two remaining applicants to see if they are still interested in the appointment.

Accepted the appointment of Grace O'Gara, if she is an Albany resident, to the Committee on Aging as recommended by Mary Millette, secretary of the Committee.

Agreed to the adoption of Resolution 79-48 urging all residents of Alameda County and the City of Albany to participate in the events honoring all Veterans and supporting the Veterans' Day parade to be held in Albany on November 12. The resolution also asks all City Councils of the county to adopt the same resolution as Albany.

ALBANY-BERKELEY HIGH TWELVE CLUB NO. 8

Monday is Ladies Day at the High Twelve Club and the speaker at the 12 noon meeting at Libby's in El Cerrito Plaza will be Glene M. Handel, Chevron Research.

The free lunch for the Ladies will hear Handel outline the evaluation of the energy crisis, especially touching on the gasoline situation.

RESOLUTION NO. 78- 37
A RESOLUTION OF THE ALBANY CITY COUNCIL, PROVIDING THAT A CERTAIN PROPOSAL TO AMEND ORDINANCE NO. 78-07 BE SUBMITTED TO A VOTE OF THE QUALIFIED ELECTORS OF THE CITY OF ALBANY.
THE ALBANY CITY COUNCIL DOES HEREBY RESOLVE AS FOLLOWS: That the Council deems it necessary and desirable to propose an amendment to Ordinance no. 78-07 of the City of Albany; that the Council hereby proposes, on its own motion, that the following proposal be submitted to the electors of the City of Albany for their approval or rejection at the special election to be held on November 6, 1979; said proposed amendment is as follows:
PROPOSED AMENDMENT OF ORDINANCE NO. 78-07 BY ADDING THERETO A NEW SECTION 305.4(d)
The people of Albany do ordain as follows:
Section 1: Addition of Section 305.4(d) to Ordinance No. 78-07.
Ordinance no. 78-07 is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:
305.4(d) — Special Reduction — Senior Citizen Housing
For the purpose of encouraging the development of senior citizen housing, the Planning and Zoning Commission may, by conditional use permit, reduce for senior citizen housing the parking requirement contained in Section 305.3(a). Such reduction shall not in any event authorize less parking than one (1) space for every three (3) dwelling units. Such reduction is authorized only in special circumstances and the extent thereof shall be based upon the degree of compliance with the criteria listed below:
1. Senior citizen housing, for the purpose of this section, is defined as a multi-family structure within which all of the dwelling units are to be utilized by persons sixty-two (62) years or older, or by couples where one member is sixty-two (62) years of age or older.
2. In determining the amount of parking to be provided, the Planning and Zoning Commission shall analyze the specific characteristics of the project taking into consideration the following factors:
—Anticipated parking needs of occupants, noting typical age, income, and physical condition of occupants.
—Size (number of bedrooms) of units, projected rent, and any participation in housing subsidy programs.
—Anticipated need for off-street parking for employees and/or guests.
—Availability of public transportation.
—Availability of on-street parking in the area.
—Access to medical facilities, shopping, commercial services, and community facilities.
3. The developer shall enter into a written agreement with the City of Albany (or its designee) to guarantee the continued use and availability of the units for senior citizens. The terms and conditions of such agreement shall run with the land which is to be developed and shall be binding upon the successors in interest of the developer and shall be recorded in the office of the County Recorder of the Alameda County. The agreement shall include a provision that the deed to the property shall contain a covenant that the dwelling units shall be sold, rented, leased, or sublet only to persons or couples where at least one (1) member is sixty-two (62) years of age or older.
4. Reduction of the parking requirements for senior citizen housing shall be applied only in the R-3, and C-E districts.
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the foregoing proposed amendment of Ordinance no. 78-07 be published in the Albany Times , a newspaper of general circulation within the City of Albany, which newspaper is hereby designated for that purpose, and such publication shall be completed not more than sixty (60) days nor less than forty (40) days before the date of the election herein provided.
